EXHIBITION

"QUEIXA_TE - D. QUIXOTE E SANCHO PANÇA" F.A.C.E. - Fórum de Arte e Cultura de Espinho, Espinho, Portugal

collective international mail_art and art_by_mail exhibition inspired in one of the most important works by Cervantes

ABOUT

activity that goes hand in hand with the homonymous puppet show from the puppet company Teatro e Marionetas de Mandrágora and it's an exhibition that will be shown alongside each presentation of that same puppet show.

This event pretends to encourage artists joining an international movement. It's also a way to provide artists the opportunity to show their work at Portugal and to spread the concepts of mail_art to other people.

Artists were invited to join sending their artwork by snail mail regarding the provided theme and title "QUEIXA_TE - D. Quixote e Sancho Pança".

we did it in the road

a history of sexuality in Tring compiled with the help of the ghost of Malcolm Muggeridge the ghost of Donald Saper has also been helpful when I was a young man many of the Tring people would copulate with animals in preference to each other which was not difficult to understand as the Tring people were no better than animals the postmen waiting for the post at Tring station would conjoin on the platform often people would defecate over one another during the reproductive act people had sexual relations with ghosts women were seen in the same light as beasts of the field the man who drove the station bus sat at the wheel naked animal worship was common and people saw their pets in the same way they saw other human beings for instance ^{dogs} answered their owners back men and women slept with dogs cats cows sheep pigs

this short description is taken from the 29 volume work on the subject

Frances O'Grady ^{TUC} The General Secretary of the British Trades Union Congress is a fictional character who is unseen in Miguel Cervantes' novel Don Quixote. The RMT union ^{Quixote} designates Frances O'Grady as Dulcinea del Toboso. Only the RMT stands between Britain and a rail system in which passengers' lives are sacrificed to profit.
